

barometer

above and beyond

- Not only did POET Biorefining - Leipsic, Ohio make a financial donation to Habitat for Humanity, they're taking the next step by actively supporting the building phase. Several team members will contribute their handiwork to the future home of a deserving recipient.
- Cleaning the shoulders of a Michigan highway through the Adopt-A-Highway program, POET Biorefining – Caro is doing their part to enhance their community and the environment.

protecting others

» In the name of safety, POET Biorefining – Alexandria, Ind. contributed to the Pipe Creek and Franton Townships Fire Departments enabling them to purchase protective equipment for their firefighters.

They also contributed to the Public Library Safety Initiative to help educate grade school students on safety in the home and at school.

» Also helping local fire departments purchase protective equipment is POET Biorefining – North Manchester, Ind. They have contributed to both the Laketon and Chester Township fire departments.

always improving

POET Biorefining – Big Stone, South Dakota exceeded their current ethanol production record with an output of 108%

nameplate capacity.

At POET Biorefining – Chancellor in South Dakota another record output was achieved.

They reached a production level of approximately 105%

nameplate capacity.

tackling the myths

South Dakota native and NFL Vikings linebacker, Chad Greenway gave POET Biorefining – Mitchell, South Dakota its Hollywood debut while filming three promotional videos for Growth Energy. Visit youtube.com/growthenergy to watch the videos.

(see “From Farm Field to Football Field”, Vital, Fall 2009)

barometer

remembering dave

Dave Holzwarth, night supervisor at POET Biorefining – Preston, Minn., was tragically killed in an ATV accident in July. In September, POET Biorefining – Preston donated a bench in his memory to a park in his hometown. A picture of the bench with the inscription is pictured to the left.

>> reducing the cost

